

MIND Technology Reminds Preferred Stockholders To Vote Proxies

August 5, 2024

THE WOODLANDS, Texas, Aug. 5, 2024 /PRNewswire/ -- MIND Technology, Inc. ("MIND" or the "Company") (Nasdaq: MIND; MINDP) will reconvene its virtual special meeting (the "Special Meeting") of holders of its 9% Series A Cumulative Preferred Stock (the "Preferred Stock") on Thursday, August 29, 2024 at 9:00 a.m. Central Time. The Special Meeting is being held to approve an amendment to the Certificate of Designations, Preferences and Rights of the Preferred Stock, which provides that each share of Preferred Stock may be converted into 3.9 shares of the Company's common stock, $0.01 par value per share, at the sole discretion of the Company's Board of Directors (the "Preferred Stock Proposal"). Preferred stockholders have previously approved a proposal to adjourn the Special Meeting one or more times to give the Company's management additional time to solicit additional proxies to approve the Preferred Stock Proposal. Given the length of the adjournment, a new record date of Tuesday, July 16, 2024 was established for the Special Meeting.

The Company filed a revised proxy statement with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") on July 22, 2024 and distributed such proxy to holders of record as of July 16, 2024 who will be eligible to vote at the Special Meeting. Previously voted proxies are no longer valid.

Rob Capps, President and CEO of MIND, stated, "We understand that the new meeting date creates some confusion since previously cast proxies are no longer valid and must be voted again. If you executed a proxy prior to July 16, 2024, that proxy is no longer valid, and you must vote again. If you have not yet received the revised proxy statement, please contact your broker or other nominee for instructions on how to vote. We encourage all holders of Preferred Stock as of July 16, 2024 to vote in favor of the Preferred Stock Proposal," concluded Capps.
